

Our database stores data for our Husky Hak forum, including user data, post data, permissions data, forum data, and more which can be seen in our ER diagram below. Our application is unique and interesting because it provides Northeastern students the opportunity to create a community within such a large university. Social media usage is at an all time high which is why such an application has the potential to be widely used across the student population.

ER Model:

